DOD: 06/01/11		SANDRA AVEDISIAN , Administrator, is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: 1. Three creditor's claims were filed and accepted by the personal representative in this matter for a total of $24,767.67. Petitioner states that, after payment of fees, the creditor's claim for funeral costs, and partial payment of the two remaining creditor's claims, there is no cash left to pay the remaining creditor's claims; and Petitioner is requesting to distribute the real property of the estate to the beneficiaries prior to payment of the remaining creditor's claims, stating that the remaining creditor's claims are to be paid on a pro rata basis if additional assets come into the estate. Pursuant to Probate Code § 11640(a) the estate is in a position to petition for final distribution when all debts have been paid or adequately provided for, or if the estate is insolvent. This estate is solvent. Therefore, this estate does not appear to be in a position for final distribution until the remaining creditor's claims have been paid or adequately provided for. No release or satisfaction of claim has been filed by any creditor in this matter. Continued on Page 2

2. The attorney's extraordinary fee request includes work performed marshaling assets of the estate, telephone calls to the Administrator, advising the Administrator regarding selling personal property items of the estate, and multiple internal conferences between the attorneys, paralegal and assistant working in Ms. Sanoian's office.

The Court may require clarification as to how this falls under extraordinary compensation rather than statutory, as identifying and marshaling assets is a general aspect of estate administration. California Rule of Court 7.703 (c)(1) includes Legal Services in connection with the sale of property held in the estate; however the itemization of work performed in connection with the sale of personal property appears to be clerical in nature and consist largely of assisting the Administrator in her duties, rather than providing legal services. The Court may require more detailed information.

3. The Petition indicates that the beneficiaries are the nieces and nephews of the decedent, but does not propose equal distribution of the real property to them. Pursuant to Probate Code 6402(c) – the surviving issue of the parents are to take equally if they are the same degree of kinship to the decedent. Therefore, it appears that distribution should be an equal 25% to each beneficiary.
4. The Petition requests that the real property of the estate be distributed in undivided interests. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.12.4A – the Court will not order distribution of real property in undivided interests absent the written consent of all distributees. Need consents from Thomas Avedisian and James Simonian.

The co-guardians have filed several declarations in support of their objection to the petition to terminate the guardianship. Co-guardians state that mother has not seen the child since December 2011 and prior to that the visits were supervised by the maternal grandmother and maternal step-grandfather. The guardians state that they would like to request that supervised visits be ordered at a supervising agency.

The guardians state that the mother does not have a stable living environment and does not have a job. They state that the petitioner/mother is currently living with the maternal grandmother and maternal step-grandfather, who have guardianship of the petitioner's son, Ethan. Co-guardians are fearful that if the guardianship is terminated that the child will be subjected to living in an environment of tension as the petitioner/mother and the step-grandfather do not get along. Petitioner/mother also stated in her petition that she could live with her eldest daughter. Guardians have concerns about the petitioner's eldest daughter as she posts explicit photos of herself on the internet and she meets random men wherever. The guardians are concerned if the petitioner regains custody of the minor that she will be subjected to this lifestyle.

Court Investigator Dina Calvillo's report filed 07/19/2012.
